

The SEFI Fellowship is awarded by the SEFI Administrative Council to SEFI individual members in recognition of their meritorious service to engineering education in Europe or to anyone the Council feels merits such distinction.

Each Fellowship nomination has been supported by a minimum of three supporting references, each from a different institutional member of the society, at least one being from a different country than the nominee.

The SEFI Fellowship is awarded to

Prof. Dr. Federico Flueckiger

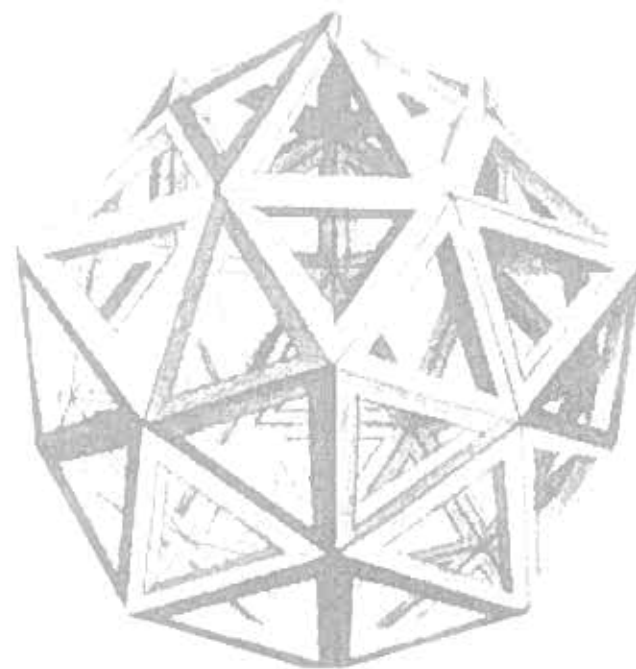

on the occasion of the General Assembly held in

Tрнава, Slovakia on 21 September 2010

SEFI

Société Européenne pour la Formation
des Ingénieurs

European Society for Engineering
Education

(Dodecahedron, illustrating the "De Divina Proportione", de L. Pacioli, from a drawing of Leonardo Da Vinci)

*On behalf of the society
The President*

Auette Kolmos